Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The rejection of claims 1-46 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph has been mooted by applicant's amendment which limits the first and second elementary filament materials to polyester and polyamide respectively and to the amendment which canceled claims 25-46

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

The rejection of claim 31 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention has been mooted by the cancellation of claim 31

Double Patenting

The provisional double patenting rejection of claims 25,26,45 and 46 has been mooted by the amendment canceling those claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

Art Unit: 1751

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The rejection of claims 1,2,11-13,20,21,25,27,28,35,40,41 and 45 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hayashi et al., US 4,367,070 has been mooted by applicant's amendment limiting the first and second filamentary materials to polyester and polyamide respectively.

The rejection of claims 27,29,40,41,42,43 and 45 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fukuda et al., US 3,516,239 has been mooted by the amendment canceling those claims.

Claim Objections

The objection to claim 27 has been mooted by the cancellation of that claim.

The following is a new grounds of rejection:

Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Where is the basis for the newly added limitation, "said first elementary filaments having been mechanically separated along their lengths from said second filamentary filaments?" The first paragraph of page 1 and the first paragraph of page 2 describes splittable fibers, not mechanically separated fibers. Page 2 line 27 et seq states, "It is desirable in the nonwoven fabrics described above to fully split, or separate, the elementary filaments of the continuous filaments from one another. These two statements disclose that the substrate filaments of the invention have not been mechanically separated because they are being separated by the inventive treatment. The specification describes a process wherein the first and second splittable filaments are separated, or split. The claims now presented describe filaments which already have been mechanically separated. Explanation is required.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
